Read the text with her to know more about it and then do some comprehension exercises. Shab-e-Yalda (Yalda Night), or Shab-e Chelleh, is one of the most ancient Persian festivals . Iranians celebrate it on December 21st all around the world. Yalda is a winter solstice celebration (the time in the year, in the middle of the winter, when there is the longest hours of night); it is at the end of the autumn and the longest night of the year. Because days get longer and nights shorter in winter, Iranians celebrate the last night of autumn. On Shab-e-Yalda, people usually go to the home of grandparents or the elderly, to pass the longest night of the year happily by eating nuts and fruits, making good wishes, talking and laughing all together to give a warm welcome to winter. They also make wishes and open the book of Hafez and grandmother or grandfather reads the poems aloud (this is called Faal-e Hafez). TRUE or FALSE. According to the text which statement is “true” and which one is “false” . 1) On Yalda festival, Iranians celebrate the first day of New Year.
